BULLDOGS KICK OFF SEASON AGAINST FAMILIAR REGIONAL FOE

Mississippi State welcomes Memphis to campus on Saturday for the lidlifter of the 2010 campaign. The game is slated for a 6 p.m. kickoff, and will be televised by ESPNU. The Bulldogs and the Tigers have not played since 2003, but prior to the recent hiatus the two schools faced off each year for 30 consecutive seasons. State has won 31 of the 42 all-time meetings between the teams, including an active streak of 10 straight wins dating back to 1994.

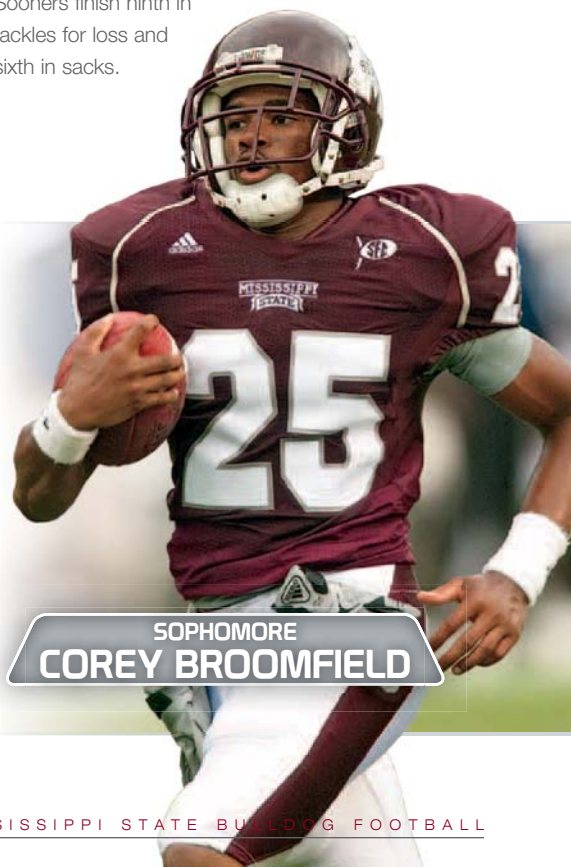

coaching staff with hopes of improving a defensive unit that finished 10th in the Southeastern Conference in total defense a year ago. State finished the year ranked 104th nationally in sacks per game and 89th in tackles for loss. Diaz' defense at Middle Tennessee finished second in tackles for loss and tied for sixth in sacks. Wilson's defensive line at Oklahoma helped the Sooners finish ninth in tackles for loss and sixth in sacks.

MULLEN HOPES FOR YEAR TWO SUCCESS

Head coach Dan Mullen had coached two or more seasons at six schools prior to taking the top spot at Mississippi State, and at nearly every stop along the way year two has seen marked improvement from the prior season. Wagner college went 6-5 in 1994 and 8-2 in 1995; Notre Dame improved from 5-7 in 1999 to 9-3 in 2000; Bowling Green went 8-3 in 2001 and 9-3 in 2002; Utah jumped from 10-2 in 2003 to 12-0 in 2004; and Florida improved from 8-3 in 2005 to 13-1 and national champions in 2006.
